

Continuing Pharmacy Education Activity Announcement

Core Preceptor Development Modules “Developing Effective Teaching Strategies in Experiential Learning”

Mary Lynn McPherson, Pharm.D., BCPS, CPE
Professor and Vice Chair
University of Maryland School of Pharmacy

Universal Activity Number: 0025-0000-15-145-H04-P

Target Audience: Preceptors affiliated with the University of Maryland School of Pharmacy

At the conclusion of this knowledge-based activity, the pharmacist will be able to:

1. Create a learning contract specific for the participant's experiential practice site and the sophistication of the student.
2. Demonstrate three active learning techniques to implement on an experiential rotation including use of the "One Minute preceptor".
3. Describe techniques for precepting more than one learner at a time while accounting for differing levels of student sophistication
4. List three common challenging situations in learning and strategies to resolve these situations.

Available as an online module at: Developing Effective Teaching Strategies in Experiential Learning

CPE Credit: 0.75 hours (0.075 CEU)

Fee: There is no fee for University of Maryland School of Pharmacy preceptors to participate in this activity

Instructions for Activity Completion: Preceptors may take this module by clicking on the web link above. After viewing the module in its entirety, participants must complete a post-test with a score of 100% and complete an activity evaluation in order to receive credit. A record of CE completion will be posted to the participant's CPE Monitor Profile within 60 days of completion of the activity

Please visit <http://www.pharmacy.umaryland.edu/about/offices/av/mediasite/setup.html> to obtain hardware and software requirements.

Dr. McPherson reports no actual or potential conflicts of interest in relation to this activity.

Release Date: September 14, 2015

Expiration Date: September 14, 2018

The University of Maryland School of Pharmacy is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education as a provider of continuing pharmacy education. This activity is supported by the University of Maryland School of Pharmacy and has no other sponsor.